THE STORY

Forty-seven years after Wait Until Dark premiered on Broadway, Jeffrey Hatcher has adapted Frederick Knott's 1966 original, giving it a new setting. In 1944 Greenwich Village, Susan Hendrix, a blind yet capable woman, is imperiled by a trio of men in her own apartment. As the climax builds, Susan discovers that her blindness just might be the key to her escape, but she and her tormentors must wait until dark to play out this classic thriller's chilling conclusion.

CAN I REVIEW THE SCRIPT IN ADVANCE?

Scripts are available for check-out. We do not charge for them, but they must be returned. Please contact the director, Richard Buman.

WHAT WILL AUDITIONS BE LIKE?

We'll have you sign in and fill out an audition form to tell us about yourself. Don't worry if you've never done this before - experience is not required. Everyone who's auditioning will be together. The material you need will be given to you. You will sit around a large table and read the script, along with others who are auditioning.

WHAT ARE THE ROLES AVAILABLE?

4 men, 1 woman, and 1 girl. The age range of the adults is 20s to 40s. The girl is 10 - 14.

WHEN WILL I KNOW IF I'M CAST?

If we are able to cast you, we will call you. If we couldn't use you this time, that doesn't mean you did a poor job. Please - come back to audition for another show!

WHAT ELSE CAN I DO?

Le Mars Community Theatre is a volunteer organization. There are many jobs, large and small: set construction, painting, running crew, lighting, costuming, ushering, and more. If you are interested in being part of the cast or crew for this production, or for any other information, contact the director, Richard Buman at 712.204.4245
